Use your interpretation what you think an IGM character would do to make a change or reimagine them in different styles, locations, or circumstances.

Winners will be published in the IGM Federation Calendar that will be sold along with the all of IGM Kit and Kaboodle. Officially making this artwork a part of the IGM universe.

General Requirements:

Entries are limited to people having residence in the United States at the time of the contest.

The Categories are based on contestant submissions, as the name implies, open to ALL ages. Each individual submission must be submitted separately. Minors must have consent from parents to enter.

Art Content Requirements:

All art submissions should be considered family friendly. This means no nudity or explicitly obscene content. IGM Federation Officers maintain the right to determine what may be considered whether a submission is suitable for entry and any unsuitable content will be automatically disqualified from the contest.

Images submitted can be produced digitally or traditionally, using any combination of media, with the following exceptions: Art can may be animated or rely on motion in its presentation, although a winning entry will be illustrated only by the first frame or a separate single graphic depicted in the animated submission on the IGM Calendar.

Art must be able to conform to the submission process. Meaning if your traditionally produced art cannot be photographed or scanned in, so it can be digitally transmitted over the internet in the accepted digital formats, you may mail it to us, and we will scan your artwork at the creative department.

File Specification Requirements:

Because one of the end results of the contest will be a printed book featuring submitted fan art, the following standards are in place to make all submissions look their best in printed form. You may contact us at InterGalacticMessengerfed@gmail.com if you have questions or concerns about your file's specifications.

Resolution:

The minimum resolution requirement for submission is that one side of your submitted image needs to be at least 1280 pixels wide or tall (approximately 4.25 inches at 300dpi). We strongly encourage that images be submitted at a resolution around 2400 pixels for at least one side of your image (approximately 8 inches at 300dpi). We encourage you to consider the final size you will wish to have your image presented at in print before your start. Here is a helpful guide for picking your artwork size if your work is digitally produced (note: this reference is for Adobe Photoshop, but the principles will easily apply to other software).

Formats:

.PDF (remember to flatten your artwork)

.JPG (Be sure to export at the highest compression quality.)

.PNG (this is a lossless compression format, and is preferred. Be sure to remove any transparency from the image before submission.)

Filename

Please format your file name according to the example below:
